Lands And Forests To Spend Over $30,000 On Deer Yards

The Lindsay District of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests expect to spend over $30,000 in deer-yard improvement this year.

The deer-yard improvements, being carried out mostly in Hindon Township, are to provide better winter feeding and shelter for deer, which would halt a decline in the deer population and keep hunting success high.

Hunters in Hindon Township report about 75 per cent success annually, but last year there were complaints from hunters that less deer were being shot. Edward Cox of the Department of Lands and Forests said.

The deer-yard improvement would also tend to concentrate the deer more in a smaller area, which would improve chances of hunters getting deer during the two week hunting season.

The hunting season in that area opened at dawn Monday morning.

Of the four areas being improved in the township, a bul-dozer is being used to clear away brush and expose soil in one area. The other three are being worked manually.

Mr. Cox said this was the first time a bulldozer has been used for the job in the Lindsay area. He said he found the bulldozer did not do as neat a job as men clearing the brush by hand, but it was much more economical.

The object of the project is to clear away scrub trees and brush, leaving the best cover trees — large hemlocks — and to scrape off the thick carpet of leaves and coniferous tree needles, exposing the soil.

Through natural process the seeds from the hemlocks would drop to the exposed ground and new trees would shoot up.

Initially, the young trees would provide some food for the deer and later trees which were not killed by the animals would grow into shelter trees, which would keep much of the snow off the deer-feeding area.

The result would be a more steady supply of deer for hunters. The deer would also be healthier and with the increased food available the animals would tend to be heavier than deer presently being shot in the area.

Mr. Cox said the government allowed $300,000 for improvement of deer-yards in the province, but as far as he knew, the Lindsay District was the only district which had drawn money from the reserve this year to revive a deer-yard project before the hunt started.

Some work, according to Mr. Cox, had been done at the deer yards in Hindon Township a few years ago. The Department is also working on two new yards in Clyde Township and one in Glamorgan Township.

After the hunt, Mr. Cox said, the Department hopes to start deer-yard work on private property. The first work is expected to be on the property of Clayton Hodgson in the Haliburton area

Tucker Scores Two Goals Also Suffers Broken Arm

Gord Tucker's exuberant play last Friday night in Haliburton resulted in two goals and a broken arm as the T.P.T. Petes defeated the Haliburton Junior 'D' club 13-3 in an exhibition contest.

Tucker's unfortunate accident took place late in the second period when he was breaking in on the opposition goal. Tucker and his check fell and the Peterborough right-winger slid into a goal post, hitting his left arm.

He was admitted to hospital in Haliburton, but returned to Peterborough before his teammates. It is not known how long he will be out of action.

As expected, Petes dominated the game completely, scoring four unanswered goals in the first period, getting four more in the second and five in the third.

Haliburton, the team which T.P.T. defenceman Ron Stackhouse played for last season, managed to beat Petes' goalie Bruce Landen once in the second and twice in the third.

SCORED FOUR GOALS

Paul Grills led the Peterborough attack connecting for four goals. Tucker and Ron Ringle each scored twice while Ron Plumb, Henry Lehvonen, George Graham, Ron Chittick and Terry Blewett added singles.

Stamp, Morrison and Wilson replied for the losers.

Plumb, doing some great work on the blueline for the Petes, was on the ice for 11 of Peterborough's goals. Lehvonen saw action as a forward and led the team in contacts with eight.

Plumb opened the scoring after only two minutes of play with Rick MacLeish drawing an assist. Grills scored a pair of unassisted goals and Tucker combined with Lehvonen to make the score 4-0.

Petes ran the score to 7-0 in the second period before Haliburton broke the goose egg. Grills pumped in his third goal, Tucker his second and Ringle his first. Stamp scored an unassisted goal but Lehvonen got that one back to make the count 8-1 going into the third period.

The final twenty minutes of action saw Grills net his fourth goal, Ringle his second, and Graham, Ron Chittick and Blewett their first. Morrison and Wilson connected for Haliburton.

A total of eight penalties were assessed with the Petes and Huskies taking four each.

Petes returned to regular league action on Sunday with a game against the Marlboros in Toronto. Petes have met Marlies twice this season and have lost both games.

Large Crowd Attends HHSS Commencement

Over 700 students and adults attended Commencement on Saturday night in Haliburton Highlands Secondary School. The Principal, Mr. J. Douglas Hodgson, stated in his opening remarks that he was very pleased that so many people had attended Commencement. He expressed his thanks to the many organizations, especially those officials in charge of hockey, that no events were scheduled in the community on Saturday night.

Mr. Hodgson pointed out that one hundred and nine students received either the Grade 12 or 13 diploma. In the past two years, twenty graduates have entered universities. This year alone over thirty students have gone on to some institution of higher learning.

Miss Patsy A. Deacon, the graduate class' Valedictorian, said: "To be a man is, precisely, to be responsible. It is to feel, when setting one's stone, that one is contributing to the building of the world. These words of St. Exupery were the theme of Expo '67, Canada's Centennial project. They are perhaps even more applicable to the centennial graduates.

Each of us as we have graduated from high school have entered the adult world where we too will be responsible. We are among the most fortunate people in the world to have the easy access to education that we do, to have an opportunity to learn how to fulfil our responsibility. At university I have learned that one of the most disruptive forces in society is a people who cannot act responsibly, who do not understand the concept that the behaviour of each citizen affects society."

Dr. S. G. B. Robinson, B.A., B.Paed., L.L.D., Secretary School Liaison Officer of Waterloo University also followed the theme of man's responsibility for society. He told the graduates that theirs was not the first generation to be in revolt against their parents who control society. He thought that his generation had been more skillful in its tactics of protest than the present one. It was his belief that his generation had made progress and he forecast that the present generation would make more progress because they are going to be better educated and prepared for the task.

See Page Seven for Commencement Programme.

Election Year In Dysart

Municipal nominations in the Municipality of Dysart et al will be held on the evening of Friday, November 24 in the Arena Auditorium at 8 p.m. On this occasion ratepayers will be called on to select a Reeve, Deputy Reeve and three Councillors to conduct the affairs of the municipality for the next two years.

There is no doubt that the present council can be faulted in some ways, but the blame for the fact that the municipality, especially the village of Haliburton, has not made the progress that it should have made cannot be blamed on council. Municipal councils are hamstrung in a good many respects as they find that their efforts to remedy pollution in Head Lake, their objections to changes in the Public School Area setup and their attempts to cut welfare costs have been thwarted at every turn of the wheel.

Two members of the Dysart Area School Board are up for re-election as well as one member for the Monmouth - Glamorgan Area. Ratepayers should see that the very best citizens are persuaded to run for these positions as our school trustees are responsible for the spending of the greater proportion of the tax dollar.

November 11th. Service

On Saturday morning at the hour of 10 a.m. in the Royal Canadian Legion Auditorium at Haliburton, a service of Remembrance will be held to pay tribute to those brave men who laid down their lives, making it possible for us to live in peace and comfort in the finest land under the sun.

Is it asking too much of the citizens of this area to pause on Saturday morning for an hour to participate in this act of Remembrance?

At 10:45 a.m. following the service in the Legion Auditorium, the members of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 129 will line up and headed by the Haliburton Legion Band will parade to the Cenotaph for a short service at 11 a.m.

Wins Jackpot

Mrs. Myrtle Davies of Haliburton was the lucky winner of the $500.00 Jackpot at the Legion Bingo held in Haliburton last night.

Minden Residents To Vote On Two Liquor Questions

MINDEN (ENS) — Residents of Minden will go to the polls on January 15 to vote on two liquor questions.

The two questions: Are you in favour of the sale of liquor under a dining lounge licence for consumption with meals on licensed premises? Are you in favour of the sale of liquor under a lounge licence for consumption on licensed premises?

The Minden area Businessmen's Association will underwrite the cost of the vote.

Minden Curling Club Schedule Starts On December 1st.

There is a certain chill in the air, the goblins and witches have come and gone, winter programs are on the planning board, which brings us up to curling. So, shake out the moth balls and check your equipment, enabling you to make out Santa's list — toques, sweaters, slacks and boots, mits, socks, woolies and brooms. Interested? Contact one of the Membership Committee: Perc Brintnell, Art Hodgkinson, Jim Anderson, Jane Graham, phone 93 or Chris Dollo. Any member would be pleased to help out.

Your Committee has been active during the summer and fall meeting each month. Our President "Genial Gene" usually opened the meetings with a pep talk and then we got down to brass tacks which included financial problems, large club membership and improvements to be made outside and in.

The Club lounge, upstairs, is trying to take on a new look and we are in need of furnishings. Members and prospective members are urged to visit this room — you may have just the article to improve the comfort and appearance of your lounge.

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER

Do you recall the very interesting articles entitled "In Quest of Yesterday" that appeared in the Echo a couple of years ago? We might say that the same writer, Mrs. Nila Reynolds, has recently completed a new series of articles named "The Hodgson Story" which we will be running shortly. As usual, this very talented writer, as the result of a lot of time and research, has produced a fine history on this outstanding family.

We must congratulate the officers of the Ontario Provincial Police who, in co-operation with the Dysart Fire Brigade, kept things so well under control on Hallowe'en night. Surely a great improvement over three years ago when a group of hoodlums nearly tore the town apart.

Much discussion has been taking place in this whole country regarding pollution of our air and waters. While we have not much cause to worry about our air which is remarkably free from any impurity, we cannot say the same for our water. A test taken from Head Lake by Mrs. Jermyn came back showing the following test: 39 Colligans and 6 Faecal. However, what can you expect in a town that cannot secure a decent sewage system and where most of the sewage at a time like this when our ground has become saturated with moisture due to the excessive rainfall sooner or later will find its way to the lake.

The hunting season is in full swing and from some of the camps reports come indicating that they have been having extra good luck. Others report however that they have not even had a glimpse of a deer.

Letters To The Editor

Haliburton, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

It has been brought to my attention that no one in this County has ever compiled a complete list of our veterans who died in the service of their country. This is indeed a sorry situation, to think that there are actually some Haliburton County men not remembered on Remembrance Day!

This is due in large measure to the dispersment of our men into various regiments and the loss of lists. Isn't it time to correct this sorry situation before the names and memory of these men disappear?

Anyone knowing of a veteran resident of Haliburton County at the time of his death in service is invited to write down the name and if possible the regiment, and mail it to: Box 119, Haliburton, Ontario. The County Library staff will try to compile a complete list.

Yours sincerely,

Noel McNeill,
County Librarian.

Snowdon Council

The regular meeting of Snowdon Township Council was held with the Reeve and all members of Council present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted on a motion by R. J. Vick, seconded by Les Switzer.

A motion was read from the Town of Milton regarding the Provincial Government assuming all the cost of education; this was to be put before the electors in the form of a question. Council did not act on this at the present time.

Moved by Les Switzer, seconded by R. J. Milburn that the usual donation of $15.00 be made to the Salvation Army.

Moved by Robert Vick, seconded by Ralph Young that a donation of $25.00 be made to the Snowdon Bush League hockey players toward the cost of new sweaters.

Moved by Les Switzer, seconded by R. J. Milburn that current bills amounting to $97.08 be paid. The October Road Account in the amount of $1,176.02 was also approved for payment.

Moved by R. J. Vick, seconded by R. J. Milburn that the meeting be adjourned until December 6 at 7 p.m.

Minden Man Jailed For Drunk Driving

A 54-year-old Minden man, Russell Stevenson, was handed a 15-day jail term for drunk driving and fines totalling $125 and costs or an additional 35 days for drinking while prohibited, when Stevenson appeared before Lindsay Magistrate Ian Munro last Wednesday. His driver's licence was suspended for 18 months.

Fenelon Falls O.P.P. Constable Stewart Brooks told the Court he saw the accused's vehicle travelling in a very erratic manner on Highway 35 near Peace Valley, about 6 p.m. October 16.

He said the accused's car was weaving from the right shoulder to the left shoulder of the road and travelled for periods in the left lane of the highway.

He said when the accused was taken to jail he threw a shoe which missed the Constable but hit a Jail Guard.

Besides the jail term, Stevenson was fined $50 and costs or 15 days for drinking on February 1, while he was prohibited, and $75 and costs or 20 days consecutively for drinking on February 14.

Bancroft Man Fined $100

A 30-year-old Bancroft area man was fined $100 and costs in Lindsay Magistrate's Court last Thursday or 15 days for taking a car without the owner's consent.

Court was told Maxwell Meharie of Harcourt found his car missing on October 11 from the Cardiff Legion Hall.

The car was later found about two miles from the Legion. Court was told the car had gone out of control and crashed, and Mr. Marshall was found in the driver's seat of the car.

David Martin is one of the thousands of victims of muscular dystrophy, a mysterious disease that is wasting away his leg and arm muscles. There is no cure for MD yet, but The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada has spent more than three million dollars since 1954 to help medical science find a way to cure or prevent the disease. David has many friends also among Canada's firefighters, who will be calling on their neighbours this November during the "March for Muscular Dystrophy" asking them to help give David Martin and others like him a brighter future.

Let's Save Our Money

People don't think about money the way they did in the depression days, or even the way they did about the end of World War II. However, when someone says a billion dollars — well, that's a lot of money no matter what length of time the spending is spread over or how many people share the cost.

It is a sum which the Canadian Tuberculosis Association wishes the public to think about, since it is a rough-and-ready sort of calculation of what TB is likely to cost Canadians within the lifetime of a large part of the population unless we can do a smart and sustained job of prevention.

The way the CTA arrives at the figure is this: The estimate of the cost of finding a case of tuberculosis, treating it, providing welfare payments for dependents while the patient is off work, rehabilitation of the patient, visits of nurses to the patient and his family when he is still on treatment at home, follow-up for the rest of his life so that should he break down again the danger will be noted before others have been infected, amounts up to about $5,000 per patient.

And how many patients in Canada are anticipated in the foreseeable future? It is a horrible thought, but the statistical picture suggests 200,000. At $5,000 per patient it comes to a billion dollars.

In case you are curious about how they arrive at the figure of 200,000, this is the basis for it: It is estimated that five per cent of those who have been infected by tubercle bacilli break down some time in their lives. It is also estimated on the basis of tuberculin surveys that a million Canadians have been infected. From there it is a matter of simple arithmetic.

All this is law of average, and what the Canadian Tuberculosis Association and its provincial and county affiliates would like the public to think about is that the law of averages is not hard and fast. It is one law that can be broken or obstructed without getting into trouble with the police. In fact, the annual TB Christmas Seal campaign is being carried on now with the precise aim of knocking that figure of 200,000 down half or better still a quarter.

There is no need for five per cent of the positives to break down. If it is known that they have been recently infected they can be put on drugs and there is a good chance the danger can be averted. If it is known that they are positive to tuberculin and have been positive for a long time, they can have periodic chest X-rays and, if there are signs of activity treatment can be started even before symptoms appear and before anyone else is infected.

Tuberculosis is a preventive disease. That billion dollar bill could have millions pared off it by prevention programmes. Our Tuberculosis Association asks us to keep that in mind when we get their letter with Christmas Seals.

SOME OF US REMEMBER

What will the Flower Children do on Remembrance Day? Will they refuse to buy a poppy because they associate it with past wars? Or will they buy every poppy they can get their hands on and try to infuse a brew of opium, so that they can turn on?

All I know is that they'll have a tough time getting any poppy-juice out of those paper poppies the Legion sells.

My daughter and I have a running battle about the Flower Children and hippies in general. She has a slogan, "Love is all you need," which I find scrawled on things all over the house.

My contention is that these kids don't love anybody but themselves, that they heartily hate anyone who doesn't subscribe to their half-baked philosophy, if you want to grace it with such a term, and that most of them don't know enough about life to wipe their own noses.

This goes over big, of course. I am immediately relegated to that rapidly-increasing segment of the population that doesn't understand anything, is against everything and can't communicate. Even though she does admit they are pretty snobbish about their "love" deal.

I asked her why she didn't have a whack at the Legion contest. It's open to all students, and they can write an essay or a poem, about the meaning of Remembrance Day. Good cash prizes, and she writes well.

"But it doesn't have any meaning for me, Dad. I didn't have an uncle or anything killed in the war." Well, what do you do? I apologized for the fact that both her war-time uncles are alive, and that I couldn't get myself killed, even with the utmost application of incompetence, just so that she could really enjoy Remembrance Day.

Eighteen seconds later, she's beefing because I haven't given her a driving lesson in a whole week, and she's just got to get her licence before the snow flies. I'm afraid we're going to have to face the fact that Remembrance Day does not mean much to the average kid today. It's not nearly as important as the latest "soul" record. And it's a mild bore, a solemn moment at school, that has no connection with the Saturday night date, or the really important things of life.

It's just one of those silly things that middle-aged people get "all hung up" about, like hard work and honesty and chastity and all those other drags.

And it's not just the kids who ignore it. Most young adults sneer at it as a relic of "Britannia Rules the Waves" and "Over the Top" and beery old veterans.

It's much more fashionable to join a "protest group" and march on something or other. City Hall. The American Consulate. It doesn't matter. Break some windows. Splash some paint. And go home sniggering that, "We really showed those fascists."

There's a vicarious thrill in the thought that the police might whack a few heads, even draw blood. Not yours, of course.

I wonder how many of those protesters would have the guts to clamber out of a muddy, stinking trench and hurl themselves into barbed wire, and machine-guns looking for their vitals?

I wonder how many of the people who carry placards, with their little fat jowls bouncing on their white collars, could fly through a thousand acres of red-hot flak, because somebody had to do it?

I wonder how many of the petition-signers, with their clean socks and their under arm deodorant, could take a week of puking and getting smashed about in a corvette.

Maybe I sound a little bitter. Maybe I am. Maybe they could and would, some of them. But until they try it, they shouldn't spit on others.

War is rotten. War is stupid. But to those who died, "Salud". And to those who live with rotten lungs and arthritis and all the rest of it, know that there are still some of us who think about you on Remembrance Day.

CHURCH NEWS

REV. COLIN RUDD

GUEST SPEAKER AT MINDEN

Last Sunday the congregation of Minden United Church enjoyed an inspiring talk on the Bible by Rev. Colin Rudd, Peterborough. Mr. Rudd told of the great work done by the Bible Society, and of the dedicated people who spent a lifetime in translating and distributing the Word of God.

We hear controversy regarding Christian education in our schools, but the newly dependent country of Ghana, and others, have ordered many thousands of Bibles to be used in their schools.

Next Sunday you are invited to hear Mr. Archie Stouffer, a Christian layman, well known to the residents of our County. He will speak on "Ecclesiastes — An Ancient Book in a Modern World".

HARCOURT COMMUNITY CHURCH BREAKS S.S. ATTENDANCE RECORD

Last Sunday our Sunday School attendance reached seventy-five. This is an all time high for a regular Sunday. Our previous record attendance was seventy-three.

Three years ago our average attendance for the year was about thirty. Each year it has gone up by approximately ten. There is little doubt that our average attendance for this year will be over sixty.

In looking forward to getting into our new building next year we anticipate another good increase in attendance.

No doubt much of the success of our program is due to the effort and dedication of our excellent staff of teachers and drivers.

LINDSAY PRESBYTERIAL U.C.W. MEETING

Sixty-five ladies met recently in Cambridge St. United Church Hall, Lindsay, members of Lindsay Presbyterial U.C.W. and Presidents of local units.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. L. Found and Mrs. J. Davie of Queen St., Lindsay, using the theme "Rememberance Day and Peace".

Mrs. E. Ruth, Omeme President, introduced the guest speakers from Bay of Quinte Conference U.C.W. - Mrs. Olive Richardson, Whitby; Mrs. C. Thompson, Campbellford; Mrs. F. Smith, Newburg. These ladies presented in dialogue "The Ultimate Concern of the Church". In 1968 no set allocation will be sent out, each organization to self determine. The objective for Canada is $2,000,000. This is the Goal, let's reach for it. The dialogue showed vividly the work of United Church Women, at home and abroad, giving tangible proof that the money given is being used wisely. That M. & M. gifts will relieve suffering, supply food, provide education and extend the gospel to those less fortunate than we. "Freely ye receive, Freely give!"

After lunch there were questions and answers with discussions, which proved most helpful to all.

Mrs. E. Ruth presided for a short business period, accepting names given as suggestions for the guest speaker for the Annual Meeting to be in Queen St. United Church, Lindsay on January 24, 1968.

Prayer by Mrs. Ruth concluded a very inspirational meeting.

UNIT 2 HALIBURTON U.C.W.

Unit 2 of the Haliburton U.C.W. was entertained in the home of Mrs. Russell Johnston on Monday, November 6 at 8 o'clock. The leader, Muriel Morrison, welcomed 11 members and opened the meeting by reading a poem entitled "Compensation".

Elda McKnight chose as her theme for the devotional period, "The form of a servant". She introduced it by reading the first two verses of the 12th Chapter of Romans. Kitty Baker read the scripture lesson from the 2nd Chapter of Philippians, verses 1-18. Briefly, Elda showed us that we were all servants and have been called to serve Christ in various ways. The offering was dedicated after which we sang one verse of "How Great Thou Art".

Following the roll call, the minutes of the October meeting were read and approved. Committee reports were heard, and as usual, our sick and visiting committee had been busy. It was suggested that our U.C.W. serve tea at the Hyland Crest Home during November.

From our book "The church grows in Canada", some early dates and happenings were noted when members were asked to read prepared slips. Aileen Robertson discussed two issues: 1. The churches and governments; 2. The churches and society. It was noted that although there is no church party in our government, the churches pressure their members in government, by resolution, editorials in church papers and letters and visits to legislators. The churches have played an important part in the development of education.

Down through the years, the churches have felt it to be a responsibility to be the conscience of the nation, and their actions have resulted in a strong puritan influence in Canadian life. They are now being accused of defending outdated Victorian customs. It was noted that 70% of our people now live in centres of 1,000 or larger as compared with only 40% in 1900, and that urbanism seems to be accompanied by a break-down in traditional religious beliefs.

A brief discussion period followed, in which the members felt that basically Canada was still a God-fearing nation. Muriel thanked the hostesses and announced that the next meeting would be at the home of Jean Casey.

The meeting was closed with the Junior Warden's Toast.

For Those Who Died

Remember those who died in past To hold their country free and fast,

Remember those who died far away, And for those who died we hold this day.

The winds blow over Flanders Fields, Poppies grow over the graves concealed; For us what did their death gain? Our freedom and happiness to maintain.

In lonely fields they lie at rest, They've fought, died and done their best; For those who died we hold this day, And it should be held in a holy way.

By Sharon McDougall.

Anniversary Party

A very delicious buffet supper was enjoyed at Wig-A-Mog Inn on Saturday, October 21 when about one hundred and thirty friends and relatives gathered to celebrate the Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Holland.

Clifford and Gladys' three daughters and son, their best man Garnet Holland, their bridesmaid Kay Campbell were in attendance as were Clifford's other two brothers and sister, and Gladys' two other sisters and three brothers.

The weather was cold, wet and windy but the delicious food and the friendliness of everyone made it an evening to remember. Guests came from Minden, Hall's Lake, Haliburton, Toronto, Peterborough, Saskatchewan and Scotland.

The happy couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts and cards wishing them many more years of happiness together.

The Old Hunting Camp

Hunting season is here
And we are all full of joy,
Out to the hunting camp
And a hunt with the boys.

They will come into the camp
Both hungry and blue,
And have a good feed
Of Dad's venison stew.

When supper is over
They all lie on their cots,
And listen to the stories
Of the game we have shot.

We'll wash up all the dishes
And hang up the towels,
And listen all night
To the timber wolves' howl.

Morning comes fast,
They are woke up with a shout,
"Come and get 'er boys
Before I throw it out".

They roll and squirm
And sit up in bed,
They smell the coffee,
Bacon and eggs.

Herb's out in the morning
With the dogs running loose,
With a few yaps
And out goes the moose.

The air is so frosty,
The trees are so still,
We know they'll go out
Across the tow hill.

We listen for shots,
One, two, three,
We know there'll be meat
For the old hanging tree.

The camp still sits
On the hill by the spring,
Probably the birds
Still come there to sing.

But there's a loneliness back there
I am sorry to say,
Since my old hunting partner
Herb
Has passed away.

I hereby call upon all voters to take immediate proceedings to have any errors or omissions corrected according to law. The last day for appeal being the 18th day of November, 1967.

Uncle Dudley's County Library News Column

"The tumult and the shouting dies" and the Provincial Election is a matter of history. The stronger opposition should make for good administration. Now we will soon be in the Municipal contests.

Having had some forty years of experience in Township matters I am concerned about some trends in our thinking. I believe we have too much carping criticism of our officials. Granted any elected person is immediately the target for criticism, but often this borders on abuse and in many cases no helpful alternative is proposed. The move for larger areas of local government, I feel, is not justified. More and more the powers of the local authorities are being curtailed, leaving the matter of decisions, monetary aid and all questions of importance to final decisions of the higher powers. This is the road to Dictatorship.

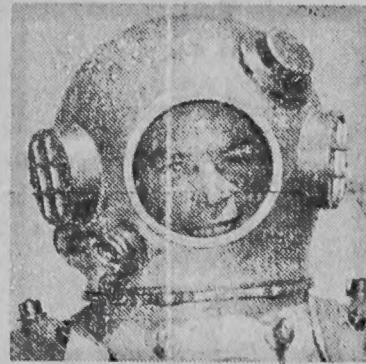

It is my opinion that the members at the Council tables of this province are closer to the problems of their people than the men at the oak desks in Toronto and Ottawa.

At this time and in our present position, financial and otherwise, I would like to see more capable men offering themselves to public service. It is a lonely path but there are many opportunities still for dedicated service.

To the general electorate I would say give much thought to the problems ahead and select the individuals you would employ to look after your own affairs, regardless of other circumstances.

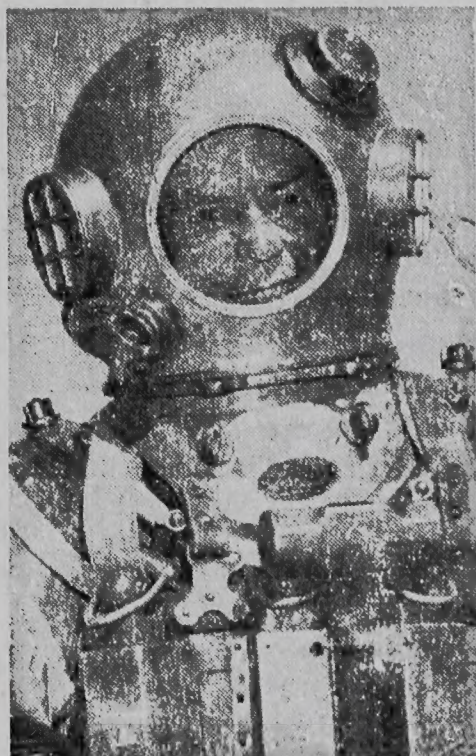

The good ship Haliburton County, with the debenture load she carries, needs careful guidance in the next decade.

Power People

What's a Diver got to do with producing electricity?

Power People - Divers

Hydro divers clear debris from an underwater structure at a new power station on the Madawaska River. Their rubber wet suits protect them from the cold and such jobs are considered routine. With sub-zero wintertime temperatures the rule—perhaps like the men insist—it really is warmer in the water. After all, you can't get into water colder than 32 degrees.

Divers are almost as much a part of electricity as linemen. Their role may not be apparent until you remember—next to electricity, Ontario Hydro's most abundant commodity is water. It drives turbines in hydro-electric power plants and cools condensers in both coal-fired and nuclear stations. In the construction and maintenance of these water-hungry giants there's almost as much to do below the surface as there is above. Here the diver is in his element.

Hydro has some 20 or so divers on staff. They're all "two way men"—when not diving they're carpenters, riggers, machinists or almost any other trade you could name. At one hydro-electric station, the same men who did structural maintenance work on a surge tank some 230 feet above the ground inspected a draft tube 16 feet below the surface of the tailrace.

Some started diving as a hobby. Others trained as divers in the navy. Whatever their background, however, they're all experts at underwater work. Using both helmets and scuba gear, they clear, inspect or repair subsurface structures at generating stations. And on construction projects they do layout work, acetylene cutting, help with the building of cofferdams and numerous other underwater tasks.

With their special skill Hydro's divers make a unique contribution to the generation of electricity in Ontario. They really get to the bottom of things.

COUNTY LIBRARY OBSERVES YOUNG CANADA BOOK WEEK

November 15 - 22 are the dates set for the Centennial observance of Young Canada's Book Week (Y.C.B.W.). Across the Dominion schools, libraries and book stores will be emphasizing books for young people.

Arrangements have been made with the National Film Board of Canada for special showings of the colour film "Helicopter Canada". These showings will be given in Wilberforce (Tuesday, Nov. 14 at the School), Haliburton (Thursday, Nov. 16 at the Arena Auditorium), and Minden (Friday, Nov. 17 at the Municipal Office Auditorium). The film will begin in each case at 8 p.m. There will be no admittance charge and everyone is welcome.

The County Library staff is preparing a special display of books by Canadians or about Canada and Canadians. These displays will be set up at the film showing and then moved to the local branch library. After December 15 they will be available for distribution.

COUNTY LIBRARY PLANS A PROJECTIONIST COURSE

The National Film Board of Canada has recognized the County Library as its depository and circulation office for this county. As a further service the Film Board and County Library will be offering a Projectionist Course to the residents of our area.

Registration is free and a certificate will be given to all who attend the two evening sessions. Beginning at 8 p.m. on November 27 and 28, the sessions will be conducted at the High School Library.

Churches, service clubs and other organizations are invited to send members for future service to their groups. The course is to be given by Mr. King from N.F.B. in Orillia.

COUNTY LIBRARIAN ATTENDS WORKSHOPS

On October 25 and November 1, Mr. McNeill, our County Librarian, travelled to Kingston to attend informative workshops conducted by the Lake Ontario Regional Library System. Our County belongs to this system and Mrs. Evelyn Hewitt of Hall's Lake belongs to the Regional Library Board.

A bus took a group of 25 people, on October 25, from Kingston to Watertown, N.Y. to observe the workings of the North Country Regional Library System.

This system is considered a "pioneer" in that it is in a large area of 5,500 square miles and serves a small population of only 237,000 people! The System has an annual budget of $250,000 and a book stock of slightly over 250,000 volumes. Everyone was inspired and a little awed at the extent of their work.

On November 1 a workshop was conducted at Kingston in which professional librarians discussed the proper use of reference books and the importance of preserving local history especially as it is contained in records.

HALIBURTON

Mr. Norm Sisco of Oshawa is at present hunting in the Haliburton area.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Everall of Lindsay were visitors here during the weekend.

Mr. Ted Price of the Bell Telephone Company at Orillia was a business visitor here last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rennie of Toronto were visitors here over the weekend.

Mail Early

Letters Cards Parcels

Gift Parcels should be well prepared when mailed to overseas destinations. Heavier volumes of mail mean that extra pressures develop in mail handling equipment, and therefore, during the Christmas mailing period, every effort should be made to protect your gifts from damage and possible loss.

In your own interest, additional time and effort should be spent on Christmas Mail preparation, so that parcels containing gifts and greetings will be received in better condition and on time for Christmas.

Your Postmaster will assist you.
